DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 7/8/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The device of Schuckman discloses all the limitations of claim 1 and 4 of the instant application as shown below.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Claims 1 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Schuckman (1255798).

As to claim 1, Schuckman discloses a trap body comprising a bottom, top, front and back members (fig. 5); the front member comprising a top (read as the upper part of the front member), a notch (read as any indentation or cut in the front surface), an opening (read as the entrance to the trap); the top member having at least one aperture (read as any through hole in the top member); the trap door slidably retained between the front member and the body by a spacer (fig 3); a bait holder (20) being pivotably attached to the top member and extending within the body; and a trip mechanism (9).

As to claim 4, disclosed is an elongated slot (read as any hole in the mesh).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 5-18 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 19-33 are allowed.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
